Dear

The Children's Advocacy Project (CAP) is excited to invite you to our 15th annual fundraising event:

As a valued member of the community, we would be honored to have you join this year's event as we strive to raise $65,000. In 2019, CAP facilitated 326 forensic interviews (the most we have served since we opened our doors in 2002) and 672 counseling sessions to support child victims of abuse. Children from as young as two years old to 18 years old, as well as those adults with developmental disabilities, find the courage to enter our agency on a daily basis to talk about their abuse in a safe, friendly environment. Below are a few significant cases in which children found the courage to speak, the team collaborated, and perpetrators were held accountable for the abuse they inflicted:

June 2019: Natrona County Judge found George Tamblin, 41, guilty at trial of committing three sex crimes against a 5-year-old girl. Because Tamblin was convicted in 2012 of second-degree sexual abuse, his latest conviction for the same crime means he is subject to a Wyoming statute that requires his incarceration for life without possibility of parole.

December 2019: A Natrona County judge sentenced a Casper man, Trae D. Smith to 48 to 60 years in prison for molesting two mentally disabled women, who are non-verbal, while he worked at a local group home. In a separate attack, he sexually abused a teenage girl, who during the trial stood to give a victim impact statement.

Your partnership supports our mission of coordinating a collaborative multi-disciplinary approach to the investigation and prosecution of severe sexual and physical abuse cases throughout the state. We are proud to be able to help these brave children and are only able to do so because of your desire to help. There are many ways you may participate in this year's event. Be a Sponsor! Donate an auction item! Team up for the Trap Shoot! All of these things help us and make our event a success.

Please review the enclosed sponsorship levels and choose to become an integral part of continuing CAP's mission. On behalf of the Board and staff, thank you for your support and participation!

Sincerely,

Stacy M. Nelson, Executive Director
